THE Schumann string quintet brings to the lyceum tomorrow night at the armory a genuinely new idea, that of presenting "Symphonic Concerts" with a company of five musicians, each an artist. To secure this symphonic effect a specially constructed reed organ is utilized. This gives all the effects of a large orchestra and combined with the piano and stringed instruments, produces an effect as surprising as it is unique.

Carl A. Lambert, organizer and first violin, is an artist. For nine years he played first violin with the famous Thomas orchestra in Chicago, and is at present connected with some of the most notable musical institutions in America. The personnel of the Schumann Quintet is: Carl A. Lambert, first violin; Harry Kaplan, celloist; Carl Portuno, reed organ, accompanist; Miss Helene Portuno, violinist and soprano, and Mrs. Grace Kaplan, accompanist.

The attractive musicale given by the pupils of Miss Beatrice Shelton last Monday evening had on its programme, a very clever number given by Master Charles Dillard. This young student of expression is already very popular as a reader of dialect and is an impersonator of a small ability. His reading of last Monday night "The Valentine" was received with vigorous applause. As an encore Master Dillard gave "Leetie Yawcut Strauss."

His instructor, Mrs. Anna Rogers Fish, expects to present her young students in an individual recital before the close of the spring term.

Mrs. George William Gray, who was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Anderson Cannon in Portland for several days last week has returned.

Mrs. L. A. Anderson, of 2398 Trade street, was the motif of a surprise shower Thursday afternoon. Those present were: Mrs. Bert Putnam, Mrs. C. R. Hammond, Mrs. R. H. Campbell, Mrs. Jack Goebel, Mrs. John Goebel, Mrs. George C. Pewtherer, Mrs. Adam Burns, Mrs. Marion Lewis White, Mrs. Clifford White, Mrs. J. A. Seely, Mrs. Jessie Wanda, Mrs. J. L. Busie, Mrs. Helen Smith, Mrs. Wallace, Mrs. Walter Goss, Mrs. W. R. McAlvin, Mrs. L. D. Secoy, Mrs. Richard Carlson, Mrs. Grant Plake, Mrs. Amanda King, Mrs. A. E. Laquet, Mrs. H. B. Colbath and Mrs. Rollie Southwick.

The matrons of the Junior Guild of St. Paul's church will meet tomorrow

Home of Miss Rose Witzel, 415 Cottage street.

Participating in the gayeties were the Misses Cora Gilbert, Clara Waller, Ruth Wells, Ethel Boyce, Gertrude and Goldie Witzel, Clara Page, Matilda Steffen, and Messrs. Robert Seamster, Arthur Page, Ralph Smith, Floyd Boyce, August Johnson, William Oglesby, Mr. Mickey, and Carl Mason.

A group of girls, the Misses Lenore Koon, Flora Newman, Angeline Smith, Stella Korstein, Lois and Inez Tyler, Francis Spurlin, Leona Smith, were hostesses for a party Friday evening at the home of the former, 1337 North Winter street.

The rooms were prettily decorated with violets and daffodils. Games formed the evening's diversion, followed by refreshments.

Those present were: Misses Emma Minton, Marjorie Minton, Averi Harris, Winnie Baker, Agnes Gregson, Mae Thompson, Hazel Roberts, Edna Hill, Ruth Aspinwall, Nellie Gleisner, Madge Bailey, Ethel Frazier, Olga Gray, Wilham Chitrik, Linn Lonsberry, Dwight Kloster, Vernon Kloster, Joseph Thompson, Lewis Thompson, Arvin Peterson, Walter Gleisner, Mr. Burchell, Mr. Womer, Lester Sparks, Floyd McIntyre, Harry Hampton, Floyd Webb, Lemuel Esteb, Bryan Conley and Kenneth Aspinwall.

A Little Publicity Awakens Mr. Sproule

ing out interviews based upon the actual facts of the matter which were in no way trade secrets and the publicity circulated around among the patrons of the Southern Pacific and its competing lines. The railroad cares not one whit for criticism except when the criticism reaches the great body of its patrons and a few stories in the news columns brought the president of the road in person to investigate the situation.

The commissioners stated that they had no fault to find with the local agents who were in all instances competent men but the railroad received its reports from these agents and the commission and the public looked at the matter from another angle.

After a three hour conference this morning of Mr. Sproule and the public service commissioners the situation was fairly thrashed out and all of the main contentions of commission were granted as Mr. Sproule admitted the justice of the claims when they were brought to his personal knowledge from the standpoint of the shipping public through the mouthpiece of the commission. Mr. Sproule promised that every car now loaded would be unloaded if warehouse room was available and that the empties would be turned back into active service. Also Mr. Sproule gave orders from the commission offices to San Francisco for a string of 100 empties to be sent to this section immediately.

HAVE PURE BLOOD

Hood's Sarsaparilla Makes Pure, Rich, Red Blood.

Your heart works night and day without a pause. It is the principal organ of the circulation of your blood. It is of the utmost importance that it should do its work well. The quality and quantity of your blood have much to do with its action. If this fluid is pure and abundant, your heart and other vital organs act with more energy than when it is defective in quality or deficient in quantity.

Hood's Sarsaparilla makes the blood pure and abundant. It is the one old reliable medicine, that has been sold for forty years, for purifying the blood. There is no better blood remedy, appetizer, stomach tonic or nerve builder.

Be sure your druggist gives you Hood's, for nothing else can possibly take its place. Get it today.

Familiar Bad Checks Cause Hoffman's Arrest

By his familiarity with the bad checks of one particular individual Sheriff Esch was able to make an arrest Saturday and secure a confession from Chester Hoffman before he was furnished with a good description of the operator. A bad check for $11.65 was passed on J. Fred Iddings, who conducts a store on East State street. After due time the check came back and was finally turned over to the sheriff who noted a familiar tone to the check. When he chanced to go down the street a short time afterward Sheriff Esch met Hoffman and took him into custody and began questioning him.

Hoffman confessed that he had passed some bad paper and gave the sheriff all of the details of the transaction, according to Sheriff Esch, but claimed that the Iddings check was the only bad one that he had passed.

Hoffman was one of the first men arrested by Sheriff Esch after he took over the office and January 13, 1913 Hoffman was taken into custody for passing a bad check for $31 at the saloon of Frank Collins. Hoffman pleaded guilty and was sentenced to two to twenty years at the pen and paroled from the bench. He went to work on a farm near Sidney but August 11 of the same year he passed another bad check and his parole was revoked upon his confession of guilt and he served a little over a year in the pen. Then he was paroled by the board and went to work on the farm of County Commissioner J. T. Beechwith.

It is not yet decided whether Hoffman will be sent back to the pen on the old charge or whether he will be tried again on a new charge. He is now in the county jail. Hoffman was raised near Liberty and his parents now reside in that section.

A speed of ten miles while passing school houses will be asked for in the bill to be introduced this evening. Portland at present has in force an ordinance limiting the speed to 10 miles while passing a school house. This matter was brought before members of the council through a communication from Mrs. P.
